

Tricia's Tips

How to prevent your water from freezing in the winter

Here are some tips for homeowners from the American Red Cross on how to prevent and thaw lines.

The city only declares a run water advisory when the ground frost exceeds an amount that could create an issue with water mains. For issues in basements, crawl spaces, and unheated outdoor walls, it's the responsibility of the homeowner to ensure against frozen pipes by using preventative measures.

