

Cummings Cove Golf League and Golf Competition Eligibility

League Participation (Men's/Ladies 9/18 Hole)

- You must be an active golf member in good standing (with paid up-to-date dues) to play in the leagues.
- All active golf members can join and play in either or both leagues on official and non-official league days during official league season and during the off season. (9 & 18 hole).
- All renters from owners with an active golf membership can play in the leagues while renting at Cummings Cove. They must pay the full annual league dues, unless their rental stay is one month or less in which case an appropriate reduction can be made.

Exceptions

- Overnight guests of active golf members can play with the league as guests on either day (not required to pay dues, assuming the length of stay does not exceed two weeks)
- New renters from owners without a golf membership, who are actively pursuing a potential home purchase here at CC can play on the unofficial league day (Monday for Men 18, Ladies 9 and Thursday for Ladies 18, Men 9) only for a maximum of 30 calendar days in their first year of rental. (The aim here is to provide a better flavor of what owning and being a golf member here at CC can be like and help promote further sales)

Prospective Members Exception

- Prospective members may participate in league play for 30 calendar days.
- Prospective members pay all green fees and cart fees.
- Prospective members do not pay annual league dues for the trial 30 calendar days.
- Prospective members pay any applicable league event fee.
- This exception is not for former golf members who have chosen to discontinue their golf membership.

Notes

- Appropriate green fees must be paid by non-members to golf shop prior to play.
- Golf memberships must be officially transferred by owners to renters via the CC administrative office.

Competitions

- This relates to the social golf competitions such as Bristol Shootout, Flag tournament, 9 and 18 hole scrambles.

- Anyone eligible to play in the leagues can play in these events.
- Overnight guests of active golf members can play in these events.

Tournaments

Member/Guest

- Only active golf members may play in the Member/Guest as the member and invite a guest of their choice.
- Renters from owners with an active golf membership or overnight guests can only play as guests of members.
- Owners without an active golf membership or renters from owners without an active golf membership can play as guests of members. Residents not in good standing cannot be invited as a guest.

Member/Member

- Only active golf members may play.
- Renters with an active golf membership are not eligible to play.

Club Championship

- Only active golf members may play, renters are not eligible.

Cove Cup (men's and ladies)

- Same eligibility as the league

Men's Interclub Events

- Priority is given to Active golf members
- If extra players are needed then extended to any player eligible to play in the league (e.g., Renter with golf membership)

Carolina Ladies

- Any active golf member is eligible to play in any Carolina Ladies competition (does not have to be a member of the 9 or 18 hole leagues)
- A renter from an owner with an active golf membership can play in Carolina Ladies but must sign up as an 'alternate' initially. If there are less than 12 signed up players, the renter may be asked to become one of the 12 players from whom the best 6 scores will be considered the Cummings Cove team score. Alternates can fully participate in the prizes within the Cummings Cove team, closest to the pins etc.

Blue Ridge Ladies

- Any active golf member is eligible to play in the Blue Ridge Women's Golf association, provided they pay the annual dues to BRWGA and their handicap index is at or below 32.0.
- A renter from an owner with an active golf membership is eligible to play in the BRWGA, under the same policies as above.

Ladies Invitationals hosted by other Clubs

- Any active golf member is eligible to play
- A renter from an owner with an active golf membership is eligible to play

Ladies Combined 9 & 18 hole Scramble Events

- League members are eligible to play, including renters (who have paid league dues) from owners with an active golf membership

Ladies 9-hole Away-Day events

- 9-hole league members are eligible to play, including renters (who have paid league dues) from owners with an active golf membership

Clinics & Other Special Events

- Clinics and other special events like informational talks are open to any active golf member, whether they play in the leagues or not.

Definitions

A golf member is someone who has paid an initiation fee or been granted a free initiation fee and is paying monthly dues throughout the calendar year.

A temporary golf member can be a renter within Cummings Cove and does not have access to a transferred golf membership from their landlord. Occasionally there are exceptions to temporary membership granted by the CC administrative offices or developers.

A temporary golf member through transfer of a membership is someone who is renting in Cummings Cove in a home of a golf member and that golf member has temporarily transferred their membership to that renter.

Official league days are Tuesdays for Ladies 18 & Men's 9-hole leagues and Wednesdays for Men's 18 and Women's 9-hole leagues.

Unofficial league days are Mondays for Men's 18 and Women's 9-hole leagues and Thursdays for Ladies 18 & Men's 9-hole leagues.
