

Relocation Guide to Carrollton, Georgia & Surrounding Areas

Welcome to West Georgia

Carrollton and the surrounding West Georgia communities offer a strong sense of community, reasonable home prices, access to nature, and a relaxed pace of life—without Metro Atlanta congestion.

Where Is Carrollton, GA? Located about 50 miles west of Downtown Atlanta, Carrollton functions independently with its own economy and culture.

Community Feel & Downtown A walkable downtown centered around Adamson Square and the 18+ mile Carrollton Greenbelt give the city a vibrant, connected feel.

Education & Higher Learning the University of West Georgia contributes educational, cultural, and economic vitality.

Surrounding Communities Mount Zion: Rural living with larger lots. Bremen: Strong schools and I-20 access. Villa Rica: Growing area with new construction. Bowdon & Temple: Affordable small-town living. Roopville: Very rural, ideal for land and privacy. Whitesburg: Close-knit community near the Chattahoochee River.

Top Places to Work Major employers include the University of West Georgia, Southwire Company, and Tanner Health System, along with manufacturing, logistics, public service, and remote work opportunities.

Housing & Lifestyle Housing ranges from historic homes and new construction to rural properties with land. Residents enjoy outdoor recreation, local dining, arts, college sports, and seasonal events.

Who Thrives Here? Ideal for families, retirees, remote professionals, and buyers seeking community-focused living without metro congestion.

Why Work with The Nestwell Group? Local expertise, personalized guidance, and a consultative, no-pressure approach to relocation.

Thinking about relocating to Carrollton or West Georgia? Schedule a no-pressure relocation consultation with The Nestwell Group

678-400-4423 • info@thenestwellgroup.com • TheNestwellGroup.com